

I fully support greater access to local radio for independent artists. The need to reflect the local community cultural activities means a fair share of air time spent on local artists. I feel prior rulings by the FCC are roadblocks to this occurring.